

INVITATION FOR TEACHERS AND CAREER ADVISORS

Professional Development; More than Gumboots and Tractors
– Careers in the Australian Grains Industry

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 2016

The grains industry would like to invite teachers and career advisors to a professional development workshop which will explore the careers available in New South Wales' grains and wider agricultural industry.

This free full-day workshop, plus grains themed dinner, will take you on a tour through a range of research centres and industry sites to see plant breeding, cereal chemistry and a range of other agricultural careers in action. University and training providers will also present on study pathways, prerequisites and study opportunities. They will also share tips for guiding students on an exciting agricultural careers pathway.
